

A Plan of the Operations of the BRITISH FORCES in EGYPT from the LANDING in ABOUKIR BAY on the 8th March to the BATTLE of ALEXANDRIA March 21st inclusive.

ORDER of BATTLE of the BRITISH ARMY,

*Lord Genl. Sir Ralph Abercromby K.B.
Maj. Genl. Hutchinson.*

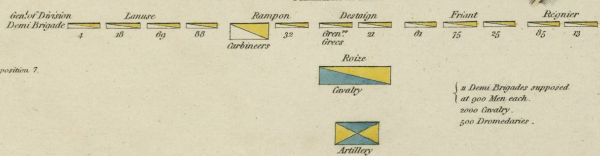

REFERENCE.

1. Position of the British after their landing on the 8th March.
2. Position of the British on the Evening of the 9th.
3. Brigade of Guards advanced on the 2nd.
4. Reserve under Maj Genl. Moore advanced on the 6th Advanced Post.
5. Advanced Post.
6. Position of the British Army on the 12th.
7. Battle and Position of the British on the 15th March.
8. Retreat of the French into the Plain after which the Army returned to their position 7.
9. Battle on the 17th March and position after the Battle.
10. Position of the French to oppose the landing on the 18th March.
11. Retreat of the French after the landing of the British.
12. Position of the French on the Battle of the 21st March.
13. Position of the French after the Battle of the 15th and 17th March.
14. Position of the French in the Battle of the 17th at day break.

ORDER of BATTLE of the FRENCH ARMY,

Abdallah Mevvi

Commander in Chief.

Taken from Mevvi's Orders for the Disposition of the Battle on the 21st March.